

I absolutely do not want the FCC rule repealed, that prohibits a media company from owning a newspaper and a television station in the same geographic area.